CIRI ACQUIRES PIECE OF ANCHORAGE SKYLINE

CIRI has joined two other partners to become the new owners of one of Anchorage's largest office complexes, which features the tallest building in Alaska.

The ConocoPhillips Alaska office complex includes four buildings with more than 677,000 square feet that sit on 1.7 acres of land. The main tower, completed in 1983, is 22-stories tall (296 feet) and its golden exterior is a familiar sight on the Anchorage skyline.

“We considered this investment carefully and are confident it will significantly strengthen and diversify CIRI’s portfolio.”

- SOPHIE MINICH

“CIRI is pleased to partner with a well-established real estate and investment company to successfully acquire this property in downtown Anchorage,” said President and CEO Sophie Minich. “CIRI is confident the investment will significantly strengthen and diversify our real estate portfolio and position the company for strong financial returns in the future.”

The complex’s primary tenant, ConocoPhillips Alaska, is among Alaska’s strongest corporations conducting business in the oil and gas industry. Current lease terms indicate ConocoPhillips Alaska will remain the tenant for the foreseeable future.

CIRI LAUNCHES VILLAGE LEGAL CLINICS

On a crisp, clear November afternoon, the Alaska Air Taxi Otter touched down on Tyonek’s icy landing strip. Stepping off the plane were lawyers bundled in goose-down jackets, eager to accomplish what they came here for. Usually, the arrival of determined shareholders and descendants in a direct line was the only thing that stirred the lake community. Now, it was a different kind of energy.

“Village legal clinics allow a connection with CIRI shareholders and descendants in a direct and valuable way,” said Bruce Anders, CIRI vice president and general counsel. “What better way to demonstrate our commitment to CIRI’s mission to promote the economic and social well-being of our shareholders than to offer free legal counsel in shareholders’ own backyards?”

The classroom-style clinics, featuring Anders and CIRI Associate Counsel Stephanie Aicher, cover a number of issues of general concern, such as consumer issues, credit repair, landlord-tenant basics, homeowner liability, dog bites, contracts, child custody/child support, elder resources and basic estate planning considerations.

Since CIRI attorneys cannot establish attorney-client relationships with individuals, if shareholders require representation, they are referred to one of the legal clinics.

CIRI NOMINATING COMMITTEE SEeks APPLICANTS FOR THE 2014 BOARD SLATE

The CIRI Nominating Committee seeks CIRI shareholders interested in being considered for nomination to the 2014 CIRI Board of Directors candidate slate. To be considered, all Board slate applicants, including incumbents, must complete and return a candidate nominee application to CIRI by Monday, January 20, 2014, 5 p.m. AKST. Additional information can be found online at www.ciri.com/content/shareholders/board_election.aspx or by contacting CIRI’s Shareholder Relations Department. The Nominating Committee will review all timely applications, conduct selected interviews and recommend candidates to CIRI’s Board of Directors. Based the Nominating Committee’s recommendations and the Board’s own subsequent evaluation, the CIRI Board will name five candidates to the Board-recommended slate.

DIRECTOR ELIGIBILITY

Pursuant to CIRI’s by-laws, CIRI Directors must: (1) be at least 18 years of age; (2) own a voting CIRI stock; (3) has not been convicted, as determined by a court of competent jurisdiction, of a felony within five years before election; (4) has not been found, as determined by a court of competent jurisdiction, to have engaged in fraud or illegal business practices; and (5) has not been found, as determined by a court of competent jurisdiction, to have breached a confidentiality agreement with the corporation.

DIRECTOR RESPONSIBILITIES AND EXPERIENCE

CIRI Directors are responsible for initiating and developing the policies that further the goals of the company, while addressing the economic, social and cultural needs of the shareholders. All applicants should be well-rounded and possess a strong business understanding. The Nominating Committee and CIRI Board looks for demonstrated decision-making, leadership and communication skills, as well as honesty and integrity. Knowledge of business operations, involvement with Alaska Native issues and a college degree or equivalent business experience are also desired.

CIRI LAUNCHES VILLAGE LEGAL CLINICS, CONTINUED ON PAGE 4
As we reflect upon 2013 and look forward to 2014, I am reminded of what a great year it has been. For me, personally, I have thoroughly enjoyed my first year as CIRI’s president and chief executive officer. Every day I am inspired and motivated by the hard work of the CIRI staff and the village teams who make this possible. I look forward to even stronger relationships and more collaboration with the villages and tribes in the future.

It’s been an exciting year for CIRI and I am proud to report on our continued strong performance on behalf of you, the shareholders. We look forward to new and exciting developments in 2014.

HIGHLIGHTS PRESIDENT’S MESSAGE

- Started site preparation work for phase two of the Fire Island Wind project.
- Transferred title of 230,000 acres of land to the village corporations.
- Cumulative dividends surpassed $1 billion, more than the $963 original ANCSA cash settlement paid to all Alaska Native corporations.
- Purchased a one-third ownership of the ConocoPhillips Alaska Office Complex.

It has, indeed, been an exciting year for CIRI and I am proud to report on our continued strong performance on behalf of you, the shareholders. We look forward to new and exciting developments in 2014, as well as more opportunities to get together and share in our common heritage.

I wish each of you a happy and healthy holiday season.

Sophie Minich

---

CIRI BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Thomas P. Huhndorf, Yup’ik
Chair
Ray M. Huhndorf, Yup’ik
Chair Emeritus
Charles G. Anderson, Athabascan
Chair Emeritus

Douglas W. Fiter, Tinglit
Vice Chair
Jeffrey A. Gonnason, Haida
Secretary
Michael R. Boling, Athabascan
Treasurer

Louis “Lou” Nagy Jr., Yup’ik
Assistant Secretary
Percy L. Carty, Atut
Assistant Treasurer
Hallie L. Bossett, Atabascan
Rolf A. Dagg, Yup’ik

Erik I. Frostad, Athabascan
Robert E. Harris, Inupiaq
Katrina M. (Dolchak) Jacak, Aleut
Ted S. Kotz Sr., Atabascan
Patrick Marts, Aleut

CIRI ALASKA TOURISM IS HIRING FOR THE 2014 SEASON

Shareholders encouraged to apply!

CIRI Alaska Tourism (CATO) is accepting applications for the 2014 tourism season to fill a variety of positions at its lodge and restaurant operations in Talkeetna, Seward and Fox Island, as well as the Anchorage office and aboard Kenai Fjords Tours sightseeing vessels.

Individuals can apply online at www.ciritourism.com.
KENAI FJORDS WILDERNESS LODGE LAUNCHES INTERACTIVE CULINARY PROGRAM

Overnight guests at the newly renovated Kenai Fjords Wilderness Lodge on Alaska’s remote Fox Island will have the opportunity to not only enjoy the local wild salmon on their plate, but also learn how to prepare the salmon belly.

In an interactive cooking class, lodge chefs will teach guests about wild Alaska seafood, specifically the five types of salmon caught in Alaska, and preparation methods. In under an hour, guests will learn the basics of handling and cooking the salmon bellies, an often discarded, yet very flavorful part of the fish.

Complimentary aprons and recipe cards are available for guests to use and take home with them, where they can put their skills to work in their own kitchens.

Salmon Belly Skewers

Ingredients:
- 2 lbs. Alaska salmon belly pieces, skin removed, cut into cubes or leave in long sections. If salmon belly is in sport supply, cubed salmon filet may also be used.
- ½ cup shoyu sauce
- ¼ cup mirin
- 1/8 cup honey
- 3 tablespoons spicy black bean paste
- 2 tablespoons sesame oil
- 1 teaspoon smoked paprika
- 1 teaspoon cayenne
- 1 ½ tablespoons toasted black sesame seeds
- ¾ cup of diced chives
- 6 sprigs beach greens

Method: Combine all the ingredients but reserve ¼ cup of chives, the beach greens and some sesame leaves. Divide the salmon belly pieces between the 8 skewers. Place the skewers on a plate and grill over a low medium heat until the salmon reaches about medium.

Tiffany Tutiakoff

Nine years ago, as an eager intern, CIRI shareholder Tiffany Tutiakoff stepped into the offices of the advertising agency Northwest Strategies. Her previous jobs all the Alaska Federation of Natives (AFN) and CIRI had exposed her to the world of marketing and advertising. It was a knock from destiny and she was ready to answer.

“I love advertising. I love marketing. But, to be part of something that is really benefiting society, and ultimately saving lives, is really rewarding.”

– TIFFANY TUTIAKOFF

“(When I was) at AFN, I got to sit in during a pitch from an advertising agency and I was just enthralled,” Tutiakoff said. “The agency’s ability to develop communications solutions with such passion and heart was impressive. Watching them sell these ideas to a client using compelling and creative messaging inspired me to do what I am doing this very day.”

The agency making the pitch was Northwest Strategies. Today, Tutiakoff leads the agency as its president, a position she’s held for a year. Her ascension at Northwest Strategies — from intern to account coordinator to junior account executive, then account executive to vice president and now its president — exposed her to all levels of the company, sharpened her marketing skills and cultivated lasting client relationships.

Tutiakoff spearheads some of the agency’s largest accounts, including the State of Alaska’s Tobacco Prevention and Control program and the recently acquired campaign to curb childhood obesity. Tutiakoff refers to it as social marketing — the attempt to influence behavior for the benefit of society. Tutiakoff’s leadership at Northwest Strategies has helped to make the agency one of the best at this approach to marketing.

“I love advertising. I love marketing. But, to be part of something that is really benefiting society, and ultimately saving lives, is really rewarding,” she said.

Tutiakoff is grateful for the support she received from CIRI and The CIRI Foundation along the way, including scholarships, internship assistance and professional connections. She also attributes her success to a strong work ethic her family instilled in her at a young age. Born after ANCSA was passed, Tutiakoff was gifted CIRI shares from her mother, Gloria Theile. She grew up in Anchorage, but her family originally comes from Alexander Creek.

HIGHLIGHTS JOB & RESUME WORKSHOP

• Attend the Resume Development Workshop, Jan. 15, prepare for the job fair.
• Attend the Job and Resource Fair Jan. 28, to apply for a variety of available employment opportunities.
• Tune into KNBA 90.3 to hear updates or visit www.ciri.com/jobfair to learn more.

www.ciri.com/jobfair

2014 Attention job seeker! CIRI Job Fair and Resume Development Workshop

Mark your calendars: the second annual CIRI Shareholder Job and Resource Fair will be held Tuesday, Jan. 28 from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. in the First Floor Conference Room/atrium at the CIRI building, at 2525 C Street in Anchorage.

Results from the survey that appeared in the October Raven’s Circle newsletter showed the majority of shareholders/descendants were interested in full-time employment in varying industries, including construction, health care and the oil and gas sectors.

The Job Fair will focus on employment opportunities with CIRI, its subsidiaries and affiliated nonprofits, along with tribal and village entities in the Cook Inlet region. CIRI Alaska Tourism Corporation launched its hiring for the 2014 tourism season in October and will attend the Job Fair seeking shareholders or descendants interested in seasonal employment.

CIRI is also pleased to announce that Davis Constructors and Engineers will attend the Job Fair to promote employment opportunities available next spring related to the construction of CIRI’s new Fireweed Business Center.

New in 2014, is an invitation for shareholders and descendants interested in honing their job-hunting skills to attend a Resume Development Workshop on January 15. CIRI and Cook Inlet Tribal Council (CITC) are hosting the event, which will be held at the CITC building located at 3600 San Jeronimo Drive. This is a great opportunity for shareholders to learn how to create a ready-to-use resume and sharpen interviewing skills along with other helpful information.

Both events are only open to CIRI shareholders and descendants, identification required. Additional information on the Job Fair and Workshop, as well as a current list of participating vendors and other requirements can be found at www.ciri.com/jobfair.

Tune in to Koahnic Broadcast Corporation’s station KNBA 90.3 fm or listen online at www.knba.org for updates as the Job-Fair approaches. For questions or to RSVP please contact CIRI’s Human Resources department at hrreplies@ciri.com or (907) 274-8638.

www.ciritourism.com

Spotlight: INTERACTIVE CULINARY PROGRAM

The 3,300-square-foot main lodge, which opened this past summer, features a hands-on demonstration area in the kitchen. Chefs tested the program in the new kitchen, and took guest feedback to design the complimentary culinary class that will be introduced when the lodge reopens on May 31, 2014.

“Our chefs are able to share so much about Alaska and our way of life just by teaching guests about our seafood.”

Dee Buchanon. “Our chefs are able to share so much about Alaska and our way of life just by teaching guests about our seafood.”

Sunset Salmon Belly Skewers

Ingredients:
- 2 lbs. Alaska salmon belly pieces, skin removed, cut into cubes or leave in long sections. If salmon belly is in sport supply, cubed salmon filet may also be used.
- ½ cup shoyu sauce
- ¼ cup mirin
- 1/8 cup honey
- 3 tablespoons spicy black bean paste
- 2 tablespoons sesame oil
- 1 teaspoon smoked paprika
- 1 teaspoon cayenne
- 1 ½ tablespoons toasted black sesame seeds
- ¾ cup of diced chives
- 6 sprigs beach greens

Method: Combine all the ingredients but reserve ¼ cup of chives, the beach greens and some sesame leaves. Divide the salmon belly pieces between the 8 skewers. Place the skewers on a plate and grill over a low medium heat until the salmon reaches about medium.

www.ciri.com/jobfair

www.ciritourism.com

www.knba.org

Tune into KNBA 90.3 to hear updates or visit www.ciris.com/jobfair to learn more.
perpetuating the heritage and traditions acquired as a CIRI shareholder and assume the mantle of Tutiakoff knows that, in time, she too will become a CIRI shareholder in Anchorage. I miss that part of my life and I wish I had more time for that.”

“But, it’s tough. My daughter and I are caught up in the daily life in Anchorage. I miss that part of my life.”

“Other villages are a family’s remote village. She knows at the base of that mountain is her family’s remote village. She wonders when she will be able to carve out the time to take her daughter there.

“We have a connection to the land. We have a connection to the land and I wish I had more time for that.”

Despite the demands on her time and the constraints of city living, Tutiakoff said she strives to instill in her ten-year-old daughter an active appreciation of her Aleut, Yup’ik and Alutacan heritage, because Tutiakoff knows that, in time, she too will become a CIRI shareholder and assume the mantle of perpetuating the heritage and traditions acquired from their ancestors.

The one luxury Tutiakoff lacks is time. Along with helping to run the advertising agency, she spends most days dashing from meeting to meeting. Her free time is devoted to her family (her 10-year-old daughter and many relatives), and her involvement in several Alaska Native art projects.

From the large windows in her corner office overlooking the Egan Center and Anchorage’s Town Square, Tutiakoff can see the snow-capped mountain known as Sleeping Lady rising beyond the shores of Cook Inlet. She knows at the base of that mountain is her family’s remote village. She wonders when she will be able to carve out the time to take her daughter there.

“We have a connection to the land. We have a connection to traditional activities,” Tutiakoff said. “But, it’s tough. My daughter and I are caught up in the daily life in Anchorage. I miss that part of my life and I wish I had more time for that.”

Despite the demands on her time and the constraints of city living, Tutiakoff said she strives to instill in her daughter an active appreciation of her Aleut, Yup’ik and Alutacan heritage, because Tutiakoff knows that, in time, she too will become a CIRI shareholder and assume the mantle of perpetuating the heritage and traditions acquired from their ancestors.

HIGHLIGHTS TIFFANY TUTIAKOFF

- From intern to president in nine years with Northwest Strategies.
- Strives to instill in her ten-year-old daughter an active appreciation of her Aleut, Yup’ik and Alutacan heritage.
- Gifed CIRI shares from her mother, CIRI shareholder Gloria Thiele.
- Family is originally from Alexander Creek.

CIRI launches Legal Clinics, Continued from Page 1

The winner of the November 2013 $200 Stock Will Participation Prize is Lawrence Albert Nicholas.

Along with the $200 monthly prize drawings, special incentives will continue in 2014 with quarterly drawings for an Apple iPad. To be eligible for the $200 drawings and the quarterly iPad drawings, you must have a valid will on file in CIRI’s Shareholder Relations Department, and you will must comply with CIRI’s fractional share policy.

The CIRI Stock Will form, instructions and additional information on the fractional share policy may be found on the CIRI website, contact CIRI’s probate staff at (907) 263-5191 or toll-free at (800) 764-2474 and select option 4 to verify whether you have a will on file.

Legal clinics allow a connection with CIRI shareholders and descendants in a direct and valuable way.

- BRUCE ANDERS

The attorneys also reach out to schools when they visit the villages to discuss with students what lawyers do and to inspire youth to consider a career in law.

“The Alaska Native youth I met and challenged are so bright, so capable, so intellectually curious,” Anders said. “I am thrilled at the prospect of seeing a whole generation of young CIRI shareholders and descendants in Alaska’s courtrooms, law firms and corporate boardrooms.”

Representatives from CIRI’s Shareholder Relations Department join each legal clinic to conduct a talking circle about the value of completing a stock will and keeping it updated and to provide on-site notarization services to shareholders wishing to execute stock wills.

SHAREHOLDER- AND DESCENDANT-OWNED BUSINESSES

CIRI shareholders and descendants own and operate a variety of small businesses, ranging from arts, to entertainment and restaurants, to construction. Visit the CIRI website at www.ciri.com for a directory of CIRI shareholder- and descendant-owned businesses.

Artworks Alaska
bunny@bunnyswan.com
4289 Beaver Loop Rd, Kenai, Alaska
907-283-3689
Bunny Swan Geese, Owner

Artworks Alaska’s gallery showcases the cultural arts of Alaska Native people and the ingenuity of the community artists on the Kenai Peninsula including talented guest artists. The gallery sells beaded and carved jewelry, music and stories, ivory, canvas, birch bark bowls, drums, pet collars, glass float mobiles and other fascinating works of art. Artworks Alaska also offers cultural presentations and workshops.

To list your shareholder- or descendant-owned business on CIRI’s website, email info@ciri.com.

Disclaimer: CIRI provides these links to shareholder- and descendant-owned businesses as a service to CIRI shareholders and their families and for informational purposes only. CIRI does not endorse and takes no responsibility for any of the products or services these businesses offer, or the ways in which they offer them. CIRI does not investigate or evaluate the listed businesses in any way, and makes no warranty, express or implied, about the truthfulness of any statement a listed business makes. CIRI reserves complete discretion in deciding whether to list any business, to maintain any listing and to update any listing or link.

CIRI Launches Legal Clinics, Continued from Page 1

HIGHLIGHTS LEGAL CLINICS

- CIRI’s legal team kicked off series of legal clinics in Cook Inlet villages.
- Touched on a number of issues of general concern from consumer issues to child custody/support, including basic estate planning considerations.
- Sought to inspire youth to consider a career in law.
- Provided connection with CIRI shareholders and descendants in a direct and valuable way.

SPOTLIGHT, CONTINUED FROM PAGE 3

The one luxury Tutiakoff lacks is time. Along with helping to run the advertising agency, she spends most days dashing from meeting to meeting. Her free time is devoted to her family (her 10-year-old daughter and many relatives), and her involvement in several Alaska Native art projects.

From the large windows in her corner office overlooking the Egan Center and Anchorage’s Town Square, Tutiakoff can see the snow-capped mountain known as Sleeping Lady rising beyond the shores of Cook Inlet. She knows at the base of that mountain is her family’s remote village. She wonders when she will be able to carve out the time to take her daughter there.

“We have a connection to the land. We have a connection to traditional activities,” Tutiakoff said. “But, it’s tough. My daughter and I are caught up in the daily life in Anchorage. I miss that part of my life and I wish I had more time for that.”

Despite the demands on her time and the constraints of city living, Tutiakoff said she strives to instill in her daughter an active appreciation of her Aleut, Yup’ik and Alutacan heritage, because Tutiakoff knows that, in time, she too will become a CIRI shareholder and assume the mantle of perpetuating the heritage and traditions acquired from their ancestors.

HIGHLIGHTS LEGAL CLINICS

- CIRI’s legal team kicked off series of legal clinics in Cook Inlet villages.
- Touched on a number of issues of general concern from consumer issues to child custody/support, including basic estate planning considerations.
- Sought to inspire youth to consider a career in law.
- Provided connection with CIRI shareholders and descendants in a direct and valuable way.

SPOTLIGHT, CONTINUED FROM PAGE 3

The one luxury Tutiakoff lacks is time. Along with helping to run the advertising agency, she spends most days dashing from meeting to meeting. Her free time is devoted to her family (her 10-year-old daughter and many relatives), and her involvement in several Alaska Native art projects.

From the large windows in her corner office overlooking the Egan Center and Anchorage’s Town Square, Tutiakoff can see the snow-capped mountain known as Sleeping Lady rising beyond the shores of Cook Inlet. She knows at the base of that mountain is her family’s remote village. She wonders when she will be able to carve out the time to take her daughter there.

“We have a connection to the land. We have a connection to traditional activities,” Tutiakoff said. “But, it’s tough. My daughter and I are caught up in the daily life in Anchorage. I miss that part of my life and I wish I had more time for that.”

Despite the demands on her time and the constraints of city living, Tutiakoff said she strives to instill in her daughter an active appreciation of her Aleut, Yup’ik and Alutacan heritage, because Tutiakoff knows that, in time, she too will become a CIRI shareholder and assume the mantle of perpetuating the heritage and traditions acquired from their ancestors.
The following CIRI shareholders do not have a current mailing address on record. Shareholders can fill out the change of address form at CIRI’s offices, download it from the CIRI website or send a signed and dated letter that includes the new address, primary number, both date and the last four digits of their social security number.

Mark Christopher David passed away July 12 in Los Angeles, Calif. Mr. David was survived by his wife, Becky Czyz and Dorothy Van Thiel.

Arthur, Don, Glen, Harvey, Jaime, John Paul and Michael Beltz, nephews. She is survived by her husband, Jim Cook; and siblings, family, cooking, entertaining, walking, traveling and camping.

Mary Louise Cook, 69
Mary Louise Cook passed away Nov. 4 at the Alaska Native Medical Center in Anchorage. Ms. Cook was born Jan. 10, 1944, in Anchorage. She enjoyed getting together with friends and family, cooking, entertaining, walking, traveling and camping. Ms. Cook loved playing games of all sorts with her nieces and nephews. She is survived by her husband, Jim Cook; and siblings, Arthur, Don, Glen, Harvey, Jaime, John Paul and Michael Beltz, Becky Czap and Dorothy Van Thiel.

Mary Louise Cook passed away Nov. 4 at the Alaska Native Medical Center in Anchorage. Ms. Cook was born Jan. 10, 1944, in Anchorage. She enjoyed getting together with friends and family, cooking, entertaining, walking, traveling and camping. Ms. Cook loved playing games of all sorts with her nieces and nephews. She is survived by her husband, Jim Cook; and siblings, Arthur, Don, Glen, Harvey, Jaime, John Paul and Michael Beltz, Becky Czap and Dorothy Van Thiel.

Mark Christopher David, 42
Mark Christopher David passed away July 12 in Los Angeles, Calif. Mr. David was born Dec. 13, 1970, in Anchorage. He was employed by the Alaska Railroad and later with the Anchorage School District. He will be greatly missed by the community of Shishmaref, his family and those who knew him. Mr. Kiyutelluk was born May 8, 1937, in Sutton. He was a member of the Elder Statesman Council Member for the Chickaloon Village. He was known to have happiness in his heart and no regrets. Mr. Shaginoff enjoyed spending time with his best friend and with Sandra, grandchildren and great-grandchildren. He also enjoyed working in the yard, hunting, fishing, traveling and family get-togethers. Mr. Shaginoff is survived by his wife, Sandra Shaginoff, step-children, Dennis Wonser, Kathy Perez, Tracy Jamison, Norma Borman and Vela Lee, and brothers, Donald and Lloyd Shaginoff.

Olaf Peter Johnson, 70
Olaf Peter Johnson passed away Aug. 22 at Kanakanak Hospital in Dillingham, Alaska. Mr. Johnson was born June 20, 1943, in Dillingham. He is survived by his siblings, Gilbert Joe Johnson, Albert Wallina and Corina Owens; and nieces and nephews, Shirene Knut, Jennifer and Troy Johnson, Danielle and Megan Tolley and Leroy, Kelli and Kasten Wallona.

Olaf Peter Johnson passed away Aug. 22 at Kanakanak Hospital in Dillingham, Alaska. Mr. Johnson was born June 20, 1943, in Dillingham. He is survived by his siblings, Gilbert Joe Johnson, Albert Wallina and Corina Owens; and nieces and nephews, Shirene Knut, Jennifer and Troy Johnson, Danielle and Megan Tolley and Leroy, Kelli and Kasten Wallona.

Troy Kimmell, 45
Troy Kimmell passed away May 4 at Scripps Mercy Hospital in San Diego, Calif. Mr. Kimmell was born May 8, 1937, in Sutton. He was a member of the Palmer Monte Lodge, American Legion Post 15 and an Elder Statesman Council Member for the Chickaloon Village. He was known to have happiness in his heart and no regrets. Mr. Shaginoff enjoyed spending time with his best friend and with Sandra, grandchildren and great-grandchildren. He also enjoyed working in the yard, hunting, fishing, traveling and family get-togethers. Mr. Shaginoff is survived by his wife, Sandra Shaginoff, step-children, Dennis Wonser, Kathy Perez, Tracy Jamison, Norma Borman and Vela Lee, and brothers, Donald and Lloyd Shaginoff.

Olaf Peter Johnson passed away Aug. 22 at Kanakanak Hospital in Dillingham, Alaska. Mr. Johnson was born June 20, 1943, in Dillingham. He is survived by his siblings, Gilbert Joe Johnson, Albert Wallina and Corina Owens; and nieces and nephews, Shirene Knut, Jennifer and Troy Johnson, Danielle and Megan Tolley and Leroy, Kelli and Kasten Wallona.

Troy Kimmell passed away May 4 at Scripps Mercy Hospital in San Diego, Calif. Mr. Kimmell was born May 8, 1937, in Sutton. He was a member of the Palmer Monte Lodge, American Legion Post 15 and an Elder Statesman Council Member for the Chickaloon Village. He was known to have happiness in his heart and no regrets. Mr. Shaginoff enjoyed spending time with his best friend and with Sandra, grandchildren and great-grandchildren. He also enjoyed working in the yard, hunting, fishing, traveling and family get-togethers. Mr. Shaginoff is survived by his wife, Sandra Shaginoff, step-children, Dennis Wonser, Kathy Perez, Tracy Jamison, Norma Borman and Vela Lee, and brothers, Donald and Lloyd Shaginoff.

Troy Kimmell passed away May 4 at Scripps Mercy Hospital in San Diego, Calif. Mr. Kimmell was born May 8, 1937, in Sutton. He was a member of the Palmer Monte Lodge, American Legion Post 15 and an Elder Statesman Council Member for the Chickaloon Village. He was known to have happiness in his heart and no regrets. Mr. Shaginoff enjoyed spending time with his best friend and with Sandra, grandchildren and great-grandchildren. He also enjoyed working in the yard, hunting, fishing, traveling and family get-togethers. Mr. Shaginoff is survived by his wife, Sandra Shaginoff, step-children, Dennis Wonser, Kathy Perez, Tracy Jamison, Norma Borman and Vela Lee, and brothers, Donald and Lloyd Shaginoff.

Burt Shaginoff, 76
Burt Shaginoff passed away Oct. 1 at home in Sutton, Alaska. Mr. Shaginoff was born May 8, 1937, in Sutton. He was a member of the Palmer Monte Lodge, American Legion Post 15 and an Elder Statesman Council Member for the Chickaloon Village. He was known to have happiness in his heart and no regrets. Mr. Shaginoff enjoyed spending time with his best friend and with Sandra, grandchildren and great-grandchildren. He also enjoyed working in the yard, hunting, fishing, traveling and family get-togethers. Mr. Shaginoff is survived by his wife, Sandra Shaginoff, step-children, Dennis Wonser, Kathy Perez, Tracy Jamison, Norma Borman and Vela Lee, and brothers, Donald and Lloyd Shaginoff.

Calvin Edward Thurmond, 78
Calvin Edward Thurmond passed away Oct. 18 at home in Anchorage. Mr. Thurmond is survived by his wife, Elizabeth Thurmond, and daughters, Josephine Gillner, Maryann Fink and Rebecca Gagnon.

Condolences
David Lee Segara Jr., 42
Tina Cheryl Sigeley, 41
Koahnic Broadcast Corporation’s Alaska Native Art Auction will be held Feb. 20, 2014 at the Denali Civic and Convention Center from 5:30 to 8:30 p.m. This annual fundraising event and celebration of Alaska Native culture features artwork by Alaska Native artists from throughout the state. The proceeds from the auction support the Native programming heard on KNBA 90.3 FM, including National Native News. Native American Calling and Earthsongs.

Koahnic is accepting donations of Alaska Native artwork for auction items. For more information about donating artwork or reserving seats at the auction, contact Cindy Hector at (907) 793-3528.

SAVE THE DATE

10th Annual Indigenous World Film Festival
January 17 & 18, 2014

Alaska Native Heritage Center
8800 Heritage Center Drive
To learn more visit www.alaskanative.net

A scene from Warriors of the Rainbow: Seediq Bale. Courtesy of The Asia

Kathy Rae Hartnett passed away July 9 at home in Ojai, Calif. Ms. Gerdes, Darlyn Hill, Kim Scarlett, Lynn Merrick and Bea Pierce. Ms. Davis is survived by her husband, Paul Davis; daughter, Sherry was a proud member of Operating Engineers Local 302 and enjoyed Center in Anchorage. Ms. Davis was born in Nome, Alaska. She enjoyed gardening, walking and biking. Her caring heart touched many. Ms. Colburn is survived by her daughter, Vanessa Rodman and Darlene and Karen Christiansen.

Caron Davis passed away August 9 at the Alaska Native Medical Center in Anchorage. Mr. Christiansen was born Dec. 17, 1937, in Kodiak, the Bering Sea and Bristol Bay. Mr. Ollestad is survived by sons, Burt, Jeff and Tollak Ollestad; daughter, Onnolee in Seldovia, Alaska.

Gilbert ollestad, 89

Helen Rose Oldaker; and daughters, Samantha Barber, Brenda in Seward, Alaska. Mr. Ollestad was

Eddie Lee Oldaker, 65

Grace Putkuk Vallee passed away June 8 in Anchorage. Grace Putkuk Vallee passed

Bryan Thomas Protzman

Heidi Astrid Lykken

Taylor Glen Moore

David Matthew Moore

Michael West Mason

Heidi Astrid Lykken

Melvin Peter Elvsaas

Wendy Kaye Crowell

Robert Lawrence Crowe Jr.

Kenneth Leo Powell

Mary B. Phillips

Sherri Anne Peterson

Jamie Lance Peterson

Jasmin Pom O’Neill

Taylor Glen Moore

David Matthew Moore

Michael West Mason

Heidi Astrid Lykken

Melvin Peter Elvsaas

Wendy Kaye Crowell

Robert Lawrence Crowe Jr.

Kenneth Leo Powell

Mary B. Phillips

Sherri Anne Peterson

Jamie Lance Peterson

Jasmin Pom O’Neill

MaryAnn Dunne

Bryan Thomas Protzman

Heidi Astrid Lykken

Melvin Peter Elvsaas

Wendy Kaye Crowell

Robert Lawrence Crowe Jr.

Kenneth Leo Powell

Mary B. Phillips

Sherri Anne Peterson

Jamie Lance Peterson

Jasmin Pom O’Neill

MaryAnn Dunne